Setting up the Food Processing Unit at Purandar

Exposure visit of farmers at Food Processing Center (Baramati)

- We have been working in the Purandar region for over 9 years, focusing on water conservation and various aspects of village development. Our efforts have benefited around 22 drought-prone villages, enabling farmers to practice perennial agriculture with fruit crops like custard apple, fig, and guava.
- We would like to set up the food processing unit at Purandar and hence the farmers from this region recently visited the Agricultural Development Trust's food processing unit.
- The purpose of the visit is to observe how new technologies are applied in practice, providing farmers with firsthand experience of modern machinery and processes.
